THE PARTICULARS ARE (If additional paper is needed, attach extra sheet(s)):

I was hired by the above named employer in July 2009, as a Cleaner. My immediate supervisor was Bob (LNU), Manager, white.

In June 2012, Bob (LNU), Manager, white, told me that if another EEOC letter was sent to one of his contracted clients "that would be my black ass". (In 2011 I filed charge 560-2011-02344C with the EEOC alleging sexual harassment against a contracted client, Giddings-Lovejoy Presbytery). Around mid July 2012, before the start of my shift, I was contacted by Bob and told that I could/should not report for work because I was a black man out of control. When I asked Bob what he was talking about he stated that he had received complaints from clients that they didn't like the way that I cleaned. Bob told me that I needed to turn in my keys which he later came to pick-up. Since that day I have received no further assignment therefore I assume that I have been terminated. Finally during my employment I was never presented any written disciplinary actions regarding my work performance.

I believe that I have been discriminated against due to my race, black, sex, male, age, 51, and retaliation, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA).
